VOL. VIII--NO. 65.

BARRE, VT., TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1904.

PRICE, ONE CENT.

JAPANESE ARMY OCCUPIED DALNY YESTERDAY.

Found All Small Bridges Destroyed, But Many Warehouses and Railroad Property Were Still Usable.

THREE JAP BOATS LOST SATURDAY.

Attempt Made to Further Block Harbor of Port Arthur Resulted in Serious Loss to the Invaders.

Washington, May 31.—The Japanese legation today received an official despatch from Tokyo dated today, saying, "General Ohn, commander of the army operating against Port Arthur, reports that our troops occupied Dalny May 30. Over one hundred more houses and barracks besides the telegraph office and railway station were found uninjured. Over 200 railway cars are still usable, but all small bridges in the neighborhood were destroyed. All the dock piers except the great pier which was sunk remain uninjured. Some steam launches were also sunk at the mouth of the dock."

VERY HEAVY LOSS FOR THE JAPANESE

Lost One Gunboat and Two Torpedo Boats in Attempt to Block Mouth of Port Arthur Harbor.

Mukden, May 31.—A report was received here today that the Japanese lost one gunboat and two torpedo boats in an attack on Port Arthur.

The attack was made in an attempt to block the harbor of Port Arthur. Search lights on the shore discovered the approach of the Japanese. After the Japanese gunboat and the two torpedo boats had been lost the merchantmen, which were intended to block the harbor entrance, withdrew.

A FINE POSITION.

Japanese Said to Have Seized a Mountain Pass.

Chefoo, May 31.—A Manchurian merchant here claims he has information that the Japanese have occupied Motienling Pass to the mountains two miles northeast of Feng Wang Cheng, directly east of Liao-Yang. This is the only pass through the mountains on the road to Liao-Yang, and it has long been expected that the Russians would take a firm stand here to prevent the further advance of the Japanese.

The place is almost perfectly adapted for a defensive fight being narrow and between high walls, making it possible for a comparatively small force to resist a much stronger one.

DIED FROM INJURIES.

Fort Ethan Allen Regular Unsuccessfully Fought by Comrades.

Burlington, May 30.—Frank Bernhardt, a private of the 15th United States cavalry at Fort Ethan Allen, died today as the result of wounds received yesterday during a disturbance at Winooski.

BITTEN BY MAD DOG

Three Women on North Seminary St.

ATTACKED BY SHEA'S DOG

Mrs. B. B. Cook, Mrs. Shea and Miss Addie Richardson Bitten—Not Case of Rabies.

Mrs. B. B. Cook, Miss Addie Richardson and Mrs. Shea, of North Seminary Street, were all bitten by a supposedly mad dog this forenoon shortly after 10 o'clock. The dog, which is a bull, belonging to "Jack" Shea of 137 North Seminary Street, had been mixed up in a dog fight near Smith, Whitcomb & Cook's a short time before, but no attention was paid to him. He came up Seminary street and rushed up and jumped at Mrs. B. B. Cook, who was working about the vines in front of her home. Miss Addie Richardson heard the noise and rushing out tried to carry Mrs. Cook to the house, but the dog took hold of Mrs. Cook's foot and would not let go. Miss Richardson unloosed the shoe and pulled the foot from it. The dog then grabbed Miss Richardson's right arm, but being shaken off, he grabbed at Mrs. Cook's right arm.

Mrs. Shea who lives in the next house then came to the rescue and the dog attacked her, grabbing her left leg and tearing out the flesh just above the ankle. The dog also bit Mrs. Shea in several other places about the ankle and in three places on her left arm, before she got away from him. Mrs. Cook received bad cuts on her left foot and hip and on her right arm. Miss Richardson received the same on her right arm. Dr. E. B. Whitaker was called to attend Mrs. Cook and Miss Richardson and Dr. J. E. McSweeney Mrs. Shea. The doctors said it was not rabies, but pure ugliness on the part of the dog.

Two men, one of them Ewen McKenzie, were attracted by the women. One grabbed him by the neck while the other pounded him over the head until they thought him dead. They dropped the dog and he jumped and ran towards city hall. At the common he was shot by E. C. French. The dog was hit but did not stop, only turning tail and heading for North Barre. On the way L. N. Gauthier shot at the dog but did not stay his progress. He then headed towards the West hill and ran into Chief of Police Brown, who shot at him on Berlin street. The dog receded off towards Montpelier with Brown and two Italians with shot guns in hot pursuit. The dog took to the Central tracks and coming up to some section men veered off into the woods towards Townsend's grove.

ROUGHLY HANDLED BY A STRANGE MAN

Georgiana Trail's Screams Scared the Fellow Off—Well-Dressed, Apparently Not a Tramp.

Miss Georgiana Trail, daughter of James Trail of Fairview street, was accosted and roughly handled by a strange man, within fifty yards of her home shortly before nine o'clock Saturday evening. Fairview street branches off Prospect street in the sixth ward. The young lady says that she was going home when the man who later accosted her passed and walked on ahead. Miss Trail stopped for a few minutes at the Hooker residence to talk with a young lady friend and then went on homeward, across the Williamstown railroad tracks.

Within a short distance of her home she was met by the man. He took her by the arm and asked her to go to walk with him. The girl drew back, the man seized her and attempted to choke her. Miss Trail screamed, and her father came running out of the house. The strange man vanished. With his daughter Mr. Trail went at once to the police station and told of the affair.

The man was about five feet, seven inches tall, dark-complexioned, with dark mustache, rather slim build. He was well dressed and did not have the appearance of a tramp. Neither was he intoxicated.

HIS SCREEN DOOR SLAMMED.

And William Ambrose Found a Man on His Piazza Last Night.

William Ambrose of Prospect street was awakened last night by the slamming of the screen door at the front of his house. He went down stairs and saw a man standing on the piazza. Ambrose asked what he wanted and the man turned and fled.

THE INTRUDER FLED.

Walked Up Back Stairs of George Mann's Residence.

Miss Jennie Mann, daughter of George Mann of Wellington street, was startled late Sunday night by the sound of footsteps on the stairway on the rear of the house. She aroused her father who grabbed a revolver and started an investigation. When Mr. Mann reached the stairway the intruder had fled.

$25 Reward.

Twenty-five dollars reward will be paid for evidence that will convict the party ringing in the alarm from box 14, Friday evening. C. H. Campbell, Chief of Fire Department.

MONTPELIER NEVER IN IT

Goddard Again Downs Old Rival

BEFORE IMMENSE CROWD

Score Was 10 to 1, Fraser Being Largely Responsible For The One-Sidedness.

The Goddard seminary base ball team established itself as the champion prep school team in the state by winning her second decisive victory over her old rival, Montpelier seminary, yesterday afternoon, at Montpelier, by a score of 10 to 1. The first game was won by the score of 10 to 3. Burlington high school claimed the championship but lost to Montpelier last week. Goddard has also made a record that has not been equalled in the state for many years by winning eight straight victories, with no defeats.

Montpelier was not in the game yesterday for a minute. Her only tally, which was made in the fifth inning, was practically given to her. Hill came to bat with Scott on third and one man out. He hit a grounder to Berry who fielded it to first when he had plenty of time to throw Scott out at the plate.

Fraser played a great game in the box, striking out nine men and allowing but three hits off his delivery. He also felled his position well, having five assists and no errors. He made two hits and one run. Huntington was easy for the Goddard batters who pounded him for 10 hits. Berry played a good game for Goddard. He made three runs and hits and felled his position at second with no errors.

Goddard tallied in every inning but three. Berry, the first man up, hit Huntington for a clean two bagger over first base. Fraser singled to right and Berry went to third. Seaver flied out to left and Berry made the first score. Blake got a base on balls. Turner hit to Huntington who threw wild to the plate and the ball went into the crowd. Fraser and Blake both scoring. Butler went out on a hit to the pitcher and Pike flied out to center, retiring the side.

M. S. failed to score. Drennan pounded the air. Scott got a base on balls. Davis put a fly in Blake's hands but he dropped it. Turner gathered in Hill's grounder and forced Scott at third. Batchelder closed the inning on an easy grounder to Fraser.

In the second Goddard scored once after two men were out. Clark fanned and Stewart went out on a grounder to first. Berry grounded to short who threw wild to first. The catcher tried to nail him stealing second but the ball went soaring into center field and Berry scored. For Montpelier Baldwin hit a fly to Stuart who muffed and the runner got to second. Rogers fanned. Willey hit a grounder to Pike who flied to Turner to catch Baldwin but Turner dropped the ball. M. S. now had a chance to score but Fraser showed his effectiveness by striking out the next two men.

In the third inning Goddard tallied twice after two men had struck out. Seaver reached first on a fly to Drennan who dropped it. Blake and Turner fanned. Butler got first on a grounder to short who threw wild to first. Pike fanned but the catcher let the third strike get by him and Seaver scored. The pitcher tried to catch Pike stealing second but threw wild and Turner scored. Montpelier only gave a gasp at the bat.

Stuart was up first for Goddard in the fourth and beat out a slow grounder to Huntington and went to second on Berry's sacrifice. Fraser singled over short, scoring Stuart. Seaver hit to the crowd in center field for two bases and Fraser crossed the plate for another score but was sent back to third as only two bases were allowed when the ball went into the crowd. Blake went out on a fly to center and Turner fanned. Rogers for M. S. fanned. Willey, the next up, hit a grounder to Pike who threw to Fraser who covered the bases in time to shut out the runner. A pretty play. Huntington got first on a scratch hit, the ball striking first base bounding out of Berry's reach. Drennan closed the inning with a fly to Clark. Score 7 to 0.

Butler in the fifth inning went out on a foul to the catcher. Pike sent a hot one between Drennan's legs for one base. Clark fanned and Pike stole second. Hill let Stewart's grounder get by him and Pike tallied. Scott for M. S. singled by Turner who caught to have stopped it, and went to third on Davis' single over second. Hill hit a grounder to Berry who fielded it first and Scott scored. Goddard then stopped the inning with a phenomenal double play. Batchelder sent a hot liner to Turner. The ball struck his hands just over his head and bounded high in the air. Butler who was backing him up caught it putting out Batchelder and touched third base putting out Davis who had tried to score. Score 8 to 1.

For the next two innings both sides went out in one, two, three order, but in the eighth Goddard came in for two more tallies. Berry singled over second. Fraser bunted to Huntington who threw Fraser out at first and Berry got to third. Seaver hit to the crowd back of first base for two bases and Berry scored. Blake singled bringing Seaver to third. Turner flied out to center field and Seaver scored. For M. S. Hill died on a grounder to Fraser. Batchelder got first on a fumble of his grounder by Butler. Baldwin fanned, and Batchelder tried to steal second but was caught.

In the last inning the first three men up for Goddard went out. Pike on a grounder to first; Clark fanned and Stuart flied to short. Rogers came up for M. S. and went out on a ground hit to Butler. Willey fanned. Huntington sent a hot grounder to Turner who fumbled it. Drennan sent another one to Turner who flied too slow and Huntington got second. Scott put a liner in Turner's hands and he dropped it but picked up the ball in time to cover third putting out Huntington and closing the game.

Notes of the Game.

A reception was given at Goddard last evening in honor of the victory.

Montpelier never had a look in, at all, and her supporters were as quiet as the grave.

Through the disability of the electric cars, the M. & W. R. R. reaped a rich harvest of dimes yesterday.

Despatch via Port Arthur: It is currently reported that Montpelier seminary had crowd for supper last evening. The report has not been confirmed, however.

Fraser is undoubtedly the star prep school pitcher of the state. He has developed wonderfully as a fielding pitcher. "Cy Young" will make a strong man with a few years more experience.

It was the biggest crowd of people that witnessed an athletic contest on the Montpelier campus. Goddard gets half the gate receipts which were $120. There were over 1,500 people in attendance.

Montpelier should not have had a single tally had the umpire been watching the next play on second base by which Butler clearly had his man caught off the base. Goddard put out four men that inning.

THE RAILROAD GAME.

C. V. Put Stage All Around the M. & W. Ball Players.

The Central Vermont and the M. & W. R. ball teams met on the Granite City Park yesterday afternoon for their annual game. After playing six innings there the grounds were given over to the Barre Rangers and the railroad men concluded their game on the Gospel village grounds. There was a large gathering to see the game and those present were undoubtedly surprised at the snappy playing. When the scorer took time to figure up the runs made he found the C. V. players had scored 15 times while the M. & W. had only two chalked up to their credit.

ROBERT EWEN WON

WRESTLING MATCH

Winner's Challenge Accepted By Con Sullivan—Another Match With Ross.

Duncan C. Ross, advertised as having wrestled "the terrible Turk," and who probably does know as much about catch-as-catch-can wrestling as any man living, met his conqueror in the person of a Barre Scotchman named Robert Ewen at the opera house last night. Ewen actually got but one fall to two for Ross but owing to the inability of the latter to continue the match the decision was given the Barre man. Just before the fourth bout was about to begin Ross stepped to the front of the platform and announced that his thumb was out of joint, calling for a doctor. No doctor responding, he said he could not wrestle and the referee, Fred Bruce, promptly declared Ewen the winner. It was also evident that Ross' power of endurance has been greatly taxed by his younger opponent.

The winner weighed 188 pounds, while Ross tipped the scales at 228, an advantage which at times proved a valuable aid for the older man but which really was the cause of his undoing in the third bout. Ross is 62 years of age, while Ewen is only 23. The first two falls went to Ross easily, he allowing Ewen to be the aggressor and then catching him unaware. The first fall was made in three minutes and the second in two. Ewen came up a little more cautiously in the third, and the bout was his after 11 minutes wrestling.

After the announcement of the result, Ewen challenged anyone in the state to wrestle catch-as-catch-can. Con Sullivan who has through the Times, challenged the winner, stepped to the platform and accepted the challenge. Arrangements will be made later.

Between the falls in the bouts last night, Robert Kerr gave a clever exhibition of bag punching. He was given hearty applause.

There was one woman in the audience. A local man has backed Ewen with $100 to wrestle Ross again and this match is expected to come off in eight days. While saying nothing against Referee Bruce, Ross says he will not have a Barre man referee the man.

SOLDIERS HONORED

Tribute To Dead Paid Yesterday

JOHN W. GORDON, ORATOR

The Ranks of Surviving Veterans in Yesterday's Procession Were Thinned.

Tribute to the nation's dead was paid in full measure in this city yesterday, Memorial Day, by a complete suspension of business, a parade and public exercises at the opera house. The line of veterans who assisted in emphasizing the significance of the day was greatly diminished from former years, there being barely a score in the line of march. The usual holiday crowd was on the streets, but the day was passed without mishap or disorder of any sort.

The parade formed at Depot Square promptly at 9:30 a. m. and marched to Elmwood cemetery where the graves of the veterans were adorned with flowers. The line of march consisted of the following: Chief marshal, Dr. Joe W. Jackson, with three mounted aids, N. J. Roberts, Alex. Bruce and C. M. Willey; squad of police; Trans-Atlantic band; Co. E, Vermont National Guard, under Capt. P. J. Rogers; St. Aldemar Commandery, No. 11, Knights Templar, William Marr, Eminent Commander; Grandall Post, G. A. R., under Commander Ell Holden and the city council with the speaker of the day in carriages.

After the graves of the veterans had been decorated, the parade returned and marched to the opera house where the public exercises of the day were held. The speaker was John W. Gordon of this city, who delivered an address full of the spirit of patriotism and paying eloquent tribute to those who assisted in the preservation of the union.

MEMORIAL SUNDAY SERMON.

Sermon by the Rev. F. A. Poole Before the Veterans.

The annual Memorial Sunday services and sermon before the R. B. Grandall Post, No. 56, G. A. R., and the Spanish war veterans of this city was held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the city hall. Rev. Francis A. Poole of the Congregational church delivered the sermon. The member of the Post gathered at the armory and marched to the city hall escorted by Company E, V. N. G.

The order of service carried out previous to the sermon by Mr. Poole was as follows: Anthem, "The Lord is King," sung by the Congregational church quartette, composed of Mr. Chapman, Mrs. Braley, Miss Harris and Mr. Ingile; invocation, Rev. T. H. Mitchell; responsive reading, Rev. W. A. Kinzie; selection by quartette; scripture reading, Rev. R. F. Lowe; prayer, Rev. A. M. Bradley; singing, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Mr. Poole's text was the eighth and ninth verses of the 85th psalm, "I will hear what God the Lord will speak; for He will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints; but not let them turn again to folly. Surely His salvation is nigh them that fear Him; that glory may dwell in our land." Mr. Poole announced the true message of Memorial day and his words glowed with the spirit of patriotism for God and country.

AT EAST BARRE.

Memorial Day Parade Largest Held For Years.

Memorial day was fittingly observed at East Barre yesterday by John A. Logan command, U. V. U. The parade, led by the East Barre Cornet band, was participated in by nearly every society in town. After the graves of departed comrades had been decorated there was an excellent address by W. W. Lapoint at the opera house.

A bountiful dinner was served by the ladies of the Union Veterans Relief Corps.

A SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

Little So. Barre Girl May be Crippled For Life.

Evelyn Spencer, the seven years old daughter of Hermon Spencer of South Barre, met with a shocking accident while driving with her mother in Randolph yesterday. The girl's hat was blown off by the wind, and while Evelyn was getting out of the carriage the horse started and ran. The girl was caught in a wheel and before the animal could be stopped, was whirled about, one leg being broken in two places and her body being much bruised. One break was at the knee joint and the other just above, so that it is feared she may be crippled for life. The little sufferer was brought to her home at South Barre and is attended by Dr. R. B. Whitaker.

ACQUITTED HIMSELF.

Fred Bruce Will Not Pay Attorney's Fees.

Fred Bruce, who was tried on the charge of striking Wait Emerson, successfully defended himself before a jury of his peers in city court Saturday afternoon and was acquitted. He argued his case for nine minutes and the jury was out 17 minutes. The jury was Alex. Milne, Alex. Innis, H. C. Baub, A. A. Smith, James Mackay and D. A. McLeod.
